Susan Lawrence is an author, speaker, and storyteller. After teaching elementary school for 26 years, she hung up the chalkboard to devote more time to speaking and writing. Her published works include two family devotionals, Atonement for Emily Adams, The Blue Marble, and The Long Ride Home. Susan lives in Des Moines, Iowa with her husband and short-legged Lab, Molly. She has three children and seven beautiful and brilliant grandchildren who love to hear her stories.

Do you have an up-coming event in your organization, church, or community? Susan can provide:

- A devotion
- A Biblical or historical story (monologue) in costume
- An inspiring teaching from Scripture
- A talk on a topic that fits your event
- A workshop on writing a memoir
- An explanation of Pour International and their ministry in Eswatini, Africa

Susan has been the speaker at:

- Women's retreats
- Church services
- Children's camps
- Vacation Bible School
- Mother/daughter event
- Mother/son event
- Senior centers
- Informal gatherings in people's homes
- Mission Sundays
- Book signings

Two final reasons to invite Susan to your event:

- For every book purchased at the event, Susan will donate $1.00 to your organization.
- All additional proceeds go to Pour International, a non-profit agency that builds and maintains abandoned baby and children's homes in Swaziland, Africa.
